Lenten Study - Led by Rev. Laura Calos

Six week study

Starting Wednesday, March 2, 2022 at 6:30 P.M. (via Zoom)

Final class is Wednesday, April 6, 2022

In this book, the author, John Pavlovitz, challenges the church and more particularly the Christians from which the church is comprised, to live out their faith in ways that are loving and redemptive. He forcefully pokes holes in our assumptions about those who are included in the beloved society and those who are not. He challenges us on what "loving our neighbor as ourselves" must really look like, if we are to be genuine to this commandment. His writing made me uncomfortable at times, because it brought to light those places where I need to expand my faith and practice. I want to invite you to come and be uncomfortable with me. We'll grow together.

You can purchase the book in a number of formats through Amazon.com. It comes as a paperback, as an audiobook and as a kindle.
