Pastor Michael will be on vacation April 21-27

Jane Eastham will lead worship on Sunday, April 21 and Rev. Toby Schilling will handle any pastoral emergencies. Pastor Michael will return on April 28 with his children. Please keep him in your prayers as he takes his first week of vacation since being appointed as pastor with Asbury. Pastor Michael will plan other times away, as it is important for him to take care of himself so he can take care of you!

Scripture of the Week

“Set a guard over my mouth, Lord; keep watch over the door of my lips.”

- Psalm 144:3 -

The Double Bind by Chris Bohjalian

Withdrawing into her photography and a job at a homeless shelter after being attacked while riding her bike, a college student encounters a homeless man with a history of mental illness and box of secret photos. When he dies suddenly, she is certain that the photos hide a dark family secret and embarks on a search for the truth.

If you do not want your solar eclipse glasses or have extras, do not throw them away!!

Asbury will have a collection box in the rotunda to collect unwanted solar eclipse glasses today.

They will then be sent to the Latin America for children to be able to enjoy the eclipse in August 2024.

What to do with your glasses after the eclipse

Donate your glasses to the OSDL office to be sent to Latin America for children to enjoy the eclipse in August 2024

What to send it yourself?

Ship by August 1st to:
Eclipse Glasses USA, LLC
PO Box 50571
Provo, UT 84605
