PRAYER OF CONFESSION

O demanding, yet forgiving God, we confess our sins to you.
We confess that at this time of year, without the exciting special days, we may allow our faith and devotion to become languid. With attendance lower than usual, our spiritual reserves may feel drained.
Our attention this time of year is more focused on recreation than on worship. Forgive us for any lack of spiritual fervor. Teach us that our faith can grow during any season of the year. Enable us to experience joy and triumph apart from the energy of Easter and Christmas.

Please bring to our hearts the ways we can grow during this season.
Use this time to mold us into devoted and faithful people. Amen.
